TUEDAY, DE EMBER 14, 1830.

Ex-Gov. Silas Woodson, of St. Joe, is announced by his friends as a candidate for United States senator to her. succeed Senator Cockrell.

In less than three mouths Mr. R. B. Haves will return to Fremont, O., day. to look after the sheep which his uncle left him. He goes back a richer the tedious reception, she stood man than when he went to Washing, smiling, yet serious-grave, yet

San Francisco is an Eldorado tor pretended poblemen. The last to go through the usual process of social postering, borrowing and running filled his position and did the hotors away, was an Italian who called him- as a prince of the blood royal might self Count Laccana.

arms factory has invented a repeating rifle of novel construction, and the .. " Ceremony, reception and breakcreases the firing capacity.

Stanley Huntley, a wayward newspaper man well known in the west, is now suspected of being the forger of cashmere. the Morey letter, and has suddenly resigned his position on the Brooklyn Eagle and left for parts unknown.

"Josie" Mansfield, who achieved noold partner, was killed by Stokes, came to the surface in New York the other day long enough to be a witness in a divorce case.

When Mrs. Pearson undertook to cut her throat at Springfield, Mass., a few days ago, her little boy caught her hand, and bit it until she dropped the weapon. But the lad's interference did not finally save her, for she sub sequently hanged herself.

paid £1,000 for the privilege of pub- up agony she suffered, until she wonlishing selected chapters from Lord -until she prayed God to let her die Beaconsfield's new romance, "Endy- is she was, or else remove the burden mion," now being published in the Globe Democrat as a continued story,

Buffalo, N. Y., recently. When taken lovers not often worship-Isabel Lisle to the police station, and subjected to had never spent one happy moment the customary search, he resisted furi- Not once had she heard of him or from ously. His reason was apparent when ly from society as though he were $3,242 in bonds and money was found dead, and so how could she have sewed up in his clothes.

Officers Printz. White, Cummings had put the ocean, foreign countries, return and Walsh, of St. Louis, have been deserts, between them? murdered while on duty within the sign; all she realized was, he had last few years. Sanders killed Printz gone so far in his displeasure as to and escaped. The murderer of Walsh give her no opportunity in penitent will probably never be discovered. A relenting to be recoaciled. And now. ly sly. policeman in St. Louis takes his life this fair, bright day she was Horace in his hand when he dons his regulation uniform.

cian, the Rev. J. Hyatt Smith, a con- longing pain and utter abandonment gressman elect, is proposing to secure of despair? in advance some of the fruits of his success by basing a lecture on his ex experience in the canvass. Most men a check for $1,000 or a Government who had thus made their calling and bond, I dare say, seeing it is contained election sure would be content with their prospective honors and emolu-parcel, please.

voted wholly to domestic affairs. Now a religion which she says she has been her hands. She sat there, her heart letters and diary I have kept. Are taining the desired information, and Bucicault. He treats a waiter like to the world. Though insane on that girlish voice, as somebody passed the Was it possible was it possible? I him to lose the one opportunity of woman.

Hancock and Garfield seem to have ope and read this: run nearly neck and neck on the flopu-300,000 short of having a clear ma- event that has given to your husband you give yourself to me?" are not yet in, of course there is con- Then the vein of icy-found sarcasm years, which now, in one little moment, away, with a sleigh and a woman and not forget Mrs. D. P. Bowers, t. gord | 5 23 16 cly siderable guess work in the above.

The Williams college graduates in hurried, half illegible scrawl: them that they had a mission to fulfil. speak to them next January.

puzzled and excited. An enormous the paper was a mass of broken fragamount of money was risked on the result of the presidential election in my husband with such thoughts in my the State very much disgusted. heavily to the ground! that state. It is said that over $100- heart ! My God, I will be true-I Didn't you receive any offers to He en leavored to rise and made ten, and generally took a comple of 000 of stakes was placed on deposit in must be true! Oh, make me-make pick cotton?" asked a friend. "Yes, light of pain, but a strange sickness cupfuls before going to bed. Yes, re the Bank of California. The points me true to him, and don't let me sich as dey was. A man offered me came over him, the light flickered and part is true, she did drink a good deal on which the wagers were made was swerve! Heaven help me!"

And with hands clasped and lovely carry the state. Now, all the demo- until a loving Father had His blessing wouldn't 'mount to one third, so I iar voices. because he had long ago killed Brod. heart, that was sick unto despair. erick. Consequently, Garfield got Half an hour later she looked up in children to school." one vote in the California electoral her husband's face, as they sat alone college, and the rest were cast for in the coach that was conveying them sense meant by the terms of the het- woman could come in contact with and mine the life quicker than consumption. care of."

THEO'S LOVE.

Isabel had managed to get through with the ceremony very creditably indeed. She had succeeded in looking queenly and el-gant, and Mr. Van Verst had shown all his pride in his handsome eyes when he looked at

She had not trembled or appeared in the least nervous, but, as her brides maid said, behaved as though she were in the habit of getting married every

After the cerem my she had through friends kissed her hand, and congratulated ber-her feminine triends, who, in their secret souls, were envious of her good luck in having "secured" the nandsome, stately man be-ide her, who have done-whose name was a power in social, financial and political circles, The late engineer of the Austrian and who had condescended from his high estate to woo lovely Isabel Lisle. And now they were "married and

German infantry rifles will be con- fast were over, and well over, and verted on this model. It greatly in Mrs. Van Verst had retired to her dressing-room to change her toilet of white satin and lace, pearls and diamonds, and white roses, for the charm ing traveling costume of ecru silk and Persing embroidered garnet

Just a little to the surprise of vivacious girls who were supposed to be indispensable on the momentous occasion, Isabel told them she really very much preferred attending up herself, and, as Isabel usually had toriety as being "the woman in the her own way, Mabel and Maude left case" when "Jim" Fisk, Jay Gould's per, with a loving, saucy little protest. And she laughed, and turned them out, and then-Regardless of the magnificence of her trailing brida! robes, unmindful of he rare and costly white roses she crushed so ruthles:lv, this baid of an nour, when she had locked the door and dashed down the curtains, flung perself on her knees beside the lounge in a perfect ecstacy of grief-knelt there, shivering and praying. She could not cry; it seemed as all her tears had "torever left her ves to curdle round her leart." She lid not even make the slightest sound. The editor of the London Times but oh! the awful, unspeakable, pent

And the why and wherefore was, that since the night and hour eighteen months before, when she and Theo a few days before the work appeared. Edmerton had parted in proud, in liguant coldn-ss-they two who had A ragged old tramp was arrested at worshipped each other as even fond him. He had disappeared as thoroughknown that in his pique, and stubbornness, and unwielding pride, he

Van Verst's wife. Some one tapped softly on the door. bringing Isabel to her senses. Had it been a minute or an hour since she Brooklyn's Baptist preacher-politi- knelt there, shivering, writing with > Maude St. Willis' cheerful voice called out:

"A belated wedding present, Belle; in an envelope. Can't I come in?" "Not quite yet, dear. I'll take the

She unlocked the door and received it; then with the first sob of paie that Mrs. Long, of Baltimore, was, until had passed her lips yet, sank faint and lately, a retiring, sedate woman, the weak upon the nearest chair, as she re-but my dear adopted parents—that I "A brave fellow, indeed," was the you put anything in the paper just say widow of a wealthy merchant, and de | cognized Theo Edmerton's hand-she is preaching on the street corners She did not at once open it; she think, if I had not mamma's I cket, I is to be found.

She did not at once open it; she think, if I had not mamma's I cket, I is to be found.

Could not, for the cold trembling of should still have known you from her But the lady departed without obcommissioned by God to make known seeming to stop its beating, until a you sorry I am mamma's daughter?" the sensitiveness of Tom Orton Caus- a slave and is as hard to please as a subject she is rational in other re- door, speaking about the time of trains, Isabel's child! perate defiance to herself.

"Without any doubt you will be suddenly ceased -even the correct, were blotted out forever. elegant handwriting changed into a northern Ohio have formed an Alumai God! what have you done? Could ing you to feel scarcely able to be on your modestly while getting ready, and though she had lived in it for years. association. Graduates had dwelt in you not have waited a little waile? feet; that constant drain that is taking soon was dashing down the arena Mrs. Pad-lock or Maggie Mitchell, is an northern Ohio many years, but they You have ruined my hopes, my hap from your system all its elasticity; driving upon a spirited steed, "clarging the even tempered, clever little woman forgot about forming an association piness, my faith and trust in women, the bloom from your cheeks; that con- world with wondrous horsemanship" She cares very little for extra fine until the election of Garfield reminded You have killed me-killed me! tinus strain upon your vital forces, ren- The audience applauled to the eating and takes her meals in the vited Garfield to dine with them and Such a letter-such despair, such misery, such pain of anger -and Mrs. pain is permanently removed. Will you The betting men of California are Van Verst crushed it in her hand till heed this?-Cincinnati Saturday Night.

ered into a peaceful smile as she laid ber hand on his.

"I mean to be such a good wife, lorace," she said, gently. "My darling, I know it." swered her; "and I am most blessed of any man on God's earth to-lay." So their wedded life began.

Two years afterward, and in facity ure.

their baby girl, a year old, watched on to destruction. he accursed, fever-stricken itv.

Vician Gweneth.

merton had come to know that that matter that chained him. no hope, or wish that the wreck he had to beat.

empathy and healing.

would withold it.

merton knew he loved her.

was warranted in asking her. that she did not.

And Vivian?

Before I answer you, she said, lift to a standstill. I have told you?"

chilly over him in that one instant by others he had disappeared. locket in his hand.

And then he opened it to look into and bloodiess lips. Isabel Lisle nineteen years before.

She smiled in his astonished face. 'You don't know--no one knows he did for thousands." She did not at once open it; she think, if I had not mamma's I cket, I is to be found."

roused her again into a sort of des- Then all the passion came radiantly ed poverty.

jority over all. The latest estimate by the sincere, undivided love of your And she stepped inside the out- such a thing. the Chicago Times gives Hancock a heart, and bestowed upon yourself the stretched hand and laid her bright. Out of breath he dashed into the know what an insignificant number of plurality of 6.513, while the Tribune, title that means, in your case, that head on his breast, and made him re- dressing room and was received with little men these great actresses and SAMPLE. your affections are so surely, so sincere- alize that it was for his highest human reproof for being late. of the same city, gives the plurality to iv, placed upon a gentleman so happiness that fate had seemed so ap-

Feeble Ladies.

A Lightning C-leuistor.

TOM ORION.

mouraing, because of the pitiless "Ah, thoughtless wealth and fash- the corner." refinement and nobility on heir mar- toiling, suff-ring brothers and sisters." man."

And the death roll, that morning, tunuit, and drawing away of teams stopped the runaway horses," was sug- was a very particular woman and hard telegraphed to happier Northern cit- on either side, or dashing into side gested, and the story told. contained these names: "Mr. streets, startled him and he knew "Humph! a very dangerous basis delicate meats and only drank makes Horace Van Verst and his wife, Mrs something unusual was taking place, ness - next to footbardy; not one in ately of light wines. I waited on her Isabel Liste Van Verst;" while in an Their come the shout of "runaway! ten thousand would have escaped at the Southern. djoining room, rosy, healthy, joyous ransway!" and he telt that life, or alive!" replied the physician with Pouline Luces was a nice women and unconscious of her awal less, property, or both, were being whirled pressed lips and fleshing eyes. "Well, but did not put on style like the orb ver by one careful nurse, while an- "Are you mad?" asked many, as home. Then I will make a more min- at the Southern with some Grand other, gray-haired and tea ful, was they ran to a place of safety, and he ute examination."

. had braved death far too often to The scene, when he was laid upon the I don't believe that story of her to Theo Elmerton had tak a up his skrink from it in any event, and most bed, side by side with his sick wife drunk at Leaven worth. I also osition at the foot of the grand stair- certainly when at such a distance. His und children, caused everyone to over found her a medierate enter and case, and was rather enjoy: glooking eves were fixed up the street on a flow with tears, on at the gay crowd that was fast team of noble bays that were tearing "Tom, dear Tom," said Joney, as about enting them any of them. S filling Mrs. Willard's purlow, and es along, mad with fright and surging well as she could for her pitiful sob is never less than two hours at dinner pecially looking, as was not the first. the sieigh from side to side-running bing, "what will become of us -of the and she has tired me not by made. or the second, or the dezent's time as he at their utmost speed, each striving to children? We will starve and die to- ing the ment to there hours. had looked just so eagearly at levely outdo the other, straining every nerve gether!" -running away driverless. Had that Of late Elmerton had been pass been all he would not have troubled his associates, every heart touched and business she has no troubled as ing through a strange exp sience, and himself, deep as was his affection for every arm nerved to the utmost to- is the most energetic little woman fair-haired Vivian was very intimate blooked steeds, for he was not, at that ward relief. ly connected with it-so intimately moment, particularly in sympaths. They all looked around anxiously they all did as well as the does the had happened to him he had thought A: the first outers he had sprung to loud and deep. never could happen to him a gain after and half climed a lamp post, and so the desolate waste time in his life when obtained a clearer view-one that Isabel Leslie had married another. thrilled his heart to the very core. He had thought never to renew his caused his breath to be more deeply faith and trust in woman. He had drawn, and his pulse almost to cease in unfeeling wretch," blurted out one should ever be made anew. And then tiful woman, pale with terror, and to please the public, and when any right into all the debris of his affect clasping two children to her breast, thing happens they care nothing for ions, Vivian Gwyneth had come with Orton thought of his J-nny and their us Until, standing watching her to-night The impulse was noble, but how was awoke his little girl. She raised up to the fairest, brightest star in Mrs. Wil- it to be acomplished? For beyond bed, chapped her tiny hands and shoutlards brilliant assemblage, Theo Ed any human control were the frantic d. in true childish glee and wonder horses. To attempt to seize the rein-Until he was wondering what the as they passed would be midness, H. gel!" remnant of his heretofore unblest life saw this-saw that the course of the All eves were turned in the direcwould be worth to him if, when he horses would bring them directly upon tion pointed, and in the doorway stood asked lovely Vivian for her love, she him, and, though the crowd furiously a beautiful woman, leaning upon the warned him of his danger, he stirred arm of the physician. For he had made up his mind slow- not -only braced muscles and nerves. Yes, an angel had come to them

"You will be instantly kill di"

An hour atterward he stood before Tom Orton shook him off just as But never was an equestrian feat Vivian Gwyneth, alone with her in the hor-es reached him, watened his better rewarded, and never a morthe fragrant half dim ternery, with his opportunity, seized upon the harnes, charitable angel appeared upon earth handsome face pale with passionate is they were sweeping past, prang even upon the day when, abke upon pleading, his eyes full of masterful lightly upon the back of the nearest the bill-top and valley, it proclaimed: to undersell us. Address, tenderness, as he told her how he loved horse, grasping the reins, and turning Peace upon earth and good will to her, and asked for her sweet self in to the atrightened woman and scream- men." ing children, shouled:

"Keep quiet! I will save von!" I think it was the sweetest way a And save them he did. Before a woman ever gave herself to her lover block had been traversed the horse- A Few Points in Regard to he that which she did, in her own perfect were made to realize that he was their way, so proud, so tender, so charming- master, and the sharp curb bit cutting deeply into their mouths brought them

ing her glorious eyes to his in a swift The crowd cheered justily-the I remember Hackett-'Falstaff' radiant little glance-before I answer police assisted the women and children Hackett, I mean. He was a terrible you, let me show you-this-the pic out and carried them to a neighboring leater, and thought not it and drinking ture of him I have loved all my life store, and as soon as the former had a quart of claret and a pint or two or Even as a baby I began to worship it, in a measure recovered her senses, she champagne at a single meal. Then It was my ideal - I have worn it night asked for her preserver, that she might there was Charles E. Burras, the man and day. Would you care to have me thank and reward him. But he was who invented the "Black Cook." He tell you what you wish, knowing what not to be found. All that could be was a very mean man to servants, but learned was, that as soon as the tremb- we won't talk about him now because A gasping sort of vague fear crept ling steeds had been taken charge of he is dead.

am Isabel Lisle's child but I know you response, "and I would give very that Letter Wallack was a perfec-Theo, the first time I saw you, and I much to know his name and where he get t'em in. He was easily pleased back to his pile face and astonished Meanwhile he was hurrying to busi think you had better say nothing And then she tore open the envelopes as he held out his arms caressing ness; more time had been occupied in about him, for he might come here "I think your mother has given you and though applause was dear to him Cushman, too. She drank a good lar vote, while each was more than congratulations on the auspicious vou, oh, my little one! Vivian, will listen, and as for risking his life for inclined to treat servants right, but May God forgive you, and if ever I dering you irritable and fretful, can easily echo, and, carried away by the excited dining room.

scourge that the hot midsum nor days ion," murmured Tom O. ton, bitterly, had swept releadesly down upon it, as he saw fur clad forms, and pamper injured min; but tell me the worst?" so explained. Gerster took one smell: And in a nearly deserted hote', where ed steeds, and richly-mounted harness, "A broken leg is all that appears I thought she would have a fire San fashion and beauty and wealth had and gilded sleighs and costly robes serious," answers a gray-headed man - stamped her foot and said : "Harri fled before the grim oncoming of the dash along. "How much you will a strange physician who had been stuff; fit only for the American! pestilence, two people lying dead - have to answer for in the day of final summoned; though I cannot account The next day at dianer I hald her sho pleasant-while her dear five hundled young, handsome even in death, with reckoning, for neglecting your poor for the marks upon your side, my reminded me of Christine Not some all that can be done now is to get him ers. I have seen her sit in her nown

He gave no heed of warning. He ed fellow taken to his humble abode, wine. Now there is Charlotta Par that, during the past few weeks, El- with wealth. It was quite another for the physician. But he was not to writer's life would be a happy or be seen, and their grambling became I know nothing about male singe

"I can bear anything," said Tom, heard that they are a great deal of that for you, Jenny, and the chil trouble, and some of them cat with dren," and he entirely broke down, "And I could carse the d ctor for patch of the most possionate. "But it is selieved himself to love at i passion In the sleigh was a young and beau. ever thus. We give our lives freely > little ones, and resolved to save them | Tom grouned heavily. The sound "Momma! papa! see! see! an an-ly during the past few weeks that he and set his teeth with determination. Tom Orton had risked his life to save "My God!" exclaimed a m n, who, that one daughter of Dr. Armitage He was almost sure she cared for bolder than the rest, sprang forward and his grandchildren, and the merest him, and yet, if it should so happen and would have drawn him away, chance had given them the knowledge Who it was.

THEATRICAL PEOPLE

Hotel Lives of Ac o.s and Actresses.

At Memphis I saw Forrest for the when she laid a diamond-crested gold "Who could it have bee ?" ques first time. He was accompanied by tioned the lady, with still ghastly face Miss Lily and a Philadelphia butcher his own eyes—the picture he had given Cannot say," answered a police very rough in his manner and not kind man, "but he was a brave fello v any- to his servants. Liberal? Well, not how. I would not have taken the risk very. Eat? Monstrous. That reminds me of Lester Wallack, It his life to have risen above iron-hand- Lawrence Barrett is very disagree able and treats servants badly, but I the rescue than he thought possible, this season. There was Charlotte money, he had not even dreamed of her little husband, Pilot, went out of his way to be mean. Did you ever singers have for husbands? You have "Could not help it," he replied: "I no idea of how much trouble these two children; thought of my Jenny honest business woman, punc and and and children, and had to stop to sav. temperate habits. Her tastes are really domestic. She comes to a ho-braved. I pray now that I may forget be removed by the use of that marvelous ment, he rashly determined to ex- The lamented Neilson was great to They are now overflowing with zeal I ever loved—yes, that I love you remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and ecute his most during acts, forgetting the help, and treated us liberally. I ob tructions of your evetem are relieved at that the horse he rode had not be n waited on her the last time she wahopeless bitterness, such anguish of once, while the special cause of periodical trained to them-was young and wild here, and when she was ready to go The result was soon plainly appar- away she sent for me and tipped me ent. Though some were accomplished $25. In the morning she are ten and in safety, yet, when he attempted toast-nothing else. Her hest neal leaping over a hanner, the fluttering was dinner, at 3 p. m., when she drank A Galveston darkey has returned frightened the hore, he holted sud- a good deal of claret and e ampagne "I will forget him-I will not go to from a business trip to the interior of denly, and Tom Orton was burled At midnight she always took a light supper. She was very fond of beef one-third ob de amount I picked, and grew dim, he gisped for air, and knew of wine. About the trandy iden't never forgot the waiter. P rhape "Do not fear for them, Tom," said you would like to hear about some of -Hot weather produces inaction of the a degen hearty voices, and as many the prime donnas. They are the best hearts shine upon the surface, and to pay $250 for the week. When she such charity is shown that none upon came to the hotel she rang the beli Broadway, brilliant and gay, as if the earth is brighter. Ah! if an hu- and, when a boy came, sabi : Bring there were nothing of poverty or hu manity was true as the brother and me the head cook and baker." Eccry man suffering in the world -as if none sisterhood, whose lives are given for thing was specially prepared for her. in the great city were familiar with the amusement and instruction of One day she sent for Mr. Gissoli hunger and sickness; as if there were others, there would be far less of trial and wanted the head cook discharged never to be any awakening from a and suffering in the world. It is a b-cause there was a little too much go den dream of luxury and pleas charity that lasts beyond even the sad sait to her soup. We couldn't sout scenes at the "Little church around her in olive oil. I brought her some one day that had been much sed for

She smiled gracionaly and gave me a Suddenly a confused cry, a wild "Probably be bort himself when he pass to the opera. Christine Nilson to please. She preferred the met lady triands of this city, eating brown hurriedly making preparation to leave stood standing upon the curbstone. Very tonderly was the noble-heart- bread and saw go and dri king Raine drinker Mme. Atlant knows mer Abbott! Hopest hitle Emm ! Yes "Not while we have hands "replied I know her. She is always as full a eversow Liberal? Well, vest

PROFESSION of the PERFECT SUSSII

their knives .- st. Louis Post Dis- val

They eat in the diving room. I have

SNEED&SUTTON,

SE TALIA, MI SCHEL, We are proposed to forms habitmets and chains Jack the fitter to," Appetred at $12 og t' R. THOROUGHBRED

We have now on hand a fine lot of well-bred BERKSHIRE pigs, six and seven months

P. A. & P. E. AMICK. New Palestine. Mo

old, for sale. We allow none premed to many tenth of webseter and it the larms be took white d with n two years from Administrator and survey, or partner.

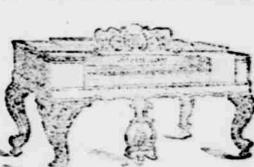

Stein w. y & Sons,

ERANICH & BACH.

207 OHIO ST.

SEDALIA, MO.

H. H WARNER & CO.

& C. Fi cher, Ernest Gabler CONOVERBROS.

PIANOS. who was good triends of his. He was BURDETT AND PALACE ORGANS.

Sheet Music, Instruction Books, Stools, Covers, and all kinds of small Instru- Fellows Compound Sprup of Hypophos-N. L. GEBHART, Manager, Purchasers will find it to their advantage to carefully inspect our stock for we offer induc-ments not obtainable elsewhere. Illustrated catalogues and prices mailed by request.

QUEEN CITY

J. RAUTENSTRAUCH, Pro'r

TRAVELING VALISES AND SATCHELS.

parently cruel in all those past dreary saw a pair of fiery horses running shawl carrying husbands are. I must Trunks and Valises Covered and Repaired. Old Trunks Taken in Exchange COR. THIRD AND OHIO STREETS, SEDALIA MO.

"ECLIPSE" "Isabel, what have you done? My Those languid, tiresome sensations, cause He told his story very briefly and tel and in an hour her room looks as CADTY ACTO MANITERACTION UAKMAGE

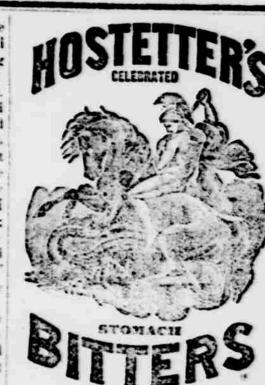

ROWLEY & CO.

NO. 305 WEST MAIN STREET, SEDAIA, MO. PURCHASE FOR CASH. BUGGIES, CARRIAGES & WAGONS

(IN THE WHITE.)

From the Largest Manufactories in the United States. $---$ $---$ THEY QUOTE THE FOLLOWING PRICES: when I looked at de field I saw for nothing more until somewhat revived know. Miss Neilson drank more Model Business Buggy, without top. 80 00 to $ 90 00

Hancock. The question is whether to the depot-such a good, grand face liver, Inscion of the liver causes do- grasped his hand as could obtain livers that come to hotels. They seem These goods are all first-class, made by manufacturers who have millions Hancock has carried the state in the that accompanied the character, no essed kidneys, and diseased kidneys, and diseased kidneys under- hold, "we will see that you are taken to make fine dishes a study. They dollars invested in their works, it is utterly impossible for small manufacture are cautious and exacting, and every- rers to compete with them, either in prices or quality, and We Openly Def. ting. Several lawsuits have been be fail to thoroughly revere and admire, All these treables can be avoided by using Many senseles ly and carelessly con- thing must be specially prepared for any Competition to give a price within $20 on any article here mentioned, many gun, and probably the bets will all be And a sudden little thrill of humble Warner's Bufe Kidney and Liver Cure, the demn the ring and the stage, but in them. They pay enough for it, though, terial and workmanship considered. Work built to order. Repairing done with content warmed in her eyes and quiv- purest and best remedy ever discovered, the law of want and suffering their The time Gerster was here ale had nestness and dispatch. [7-27ddw1y] F. G. CROWLEY & CO.

ire without question the Finest and Best Cooking Stoves in the world. EVERY ONE of the 141 SIZES

AND BY -

IS SOLD WITH A

Communication Detribution Company

sons, that maring programmer, it has no equal. It is stores the origins that marks the threel and thence the last Boo of Purifier. It is the only skingly tenerally that our is Bright's Inc. asc. For I haberes, use Warner's Safe Disabetes. AT MACAULEY'S TERRAPHIC. For sale by dru-glots and all benfore at $1.25

DECEMBER DRAWING.

the date 5.1 is publication they shall be lower I servers, can be sent at our expense, tarred. This 27 diskay of November, 1880.

W. J. Buerry.

OR. M. BOARDELYN, Course; Journal on the green Language Language. Language Box Any

WASTING DISEASES

OMPOUND SYRUP

Chronic Consumption Chronic

Drarhoea, Dyspepsia, or LOSS OF NERVOUS FOWER,

Attention has been called to the fact that inasmuch as salts of Hypephosphites are more readily absorbed by the system, in various every indicated muxummes with which to improve the blood ern me; no other preparation is a substitute for on the tellow erapper in water man, which is seen by holding the paper before the light,

Price, $1 50 per Eattle. Six for $7.50. SOLD BY ALL DEFOCISTS.

TO NERVOUS SUFFERENCES. THE GREAT RE

SPECIFIC MEDICINE.

JE SEEDSON MUDICIPE CO. Non-Int and ins Mara St., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold in Scinda by Q. C. Shek.

